

I call on you to hold an official public hearing in my state.

The American public deserves local public hearings on how the FCC allocates the airwaves that the American public owns.

The concentration of media ownership is an enormous threat to our democracy.

The FCC needs to act swiftly and effectively to ensure diversity in our media. Our democratic way of life is at stake.